PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Int+ Technology Vuoloray

Remote

Project Manager

2024-Present

- Led a cross-functional team of 12 individuals to conceptualize, create, and introduce a web application to decentralize last-mile delivery. As a result of the project's strong performance and significant organizational influence, I was invited to contribute to another product, Xperience. I was granted a 20% equity stake following its successful launch.
- As the leader of a cross-functional design team, I spearheaded the development of 'Xperience,' a web application designed to enhance event experiences by enabling seamless photo sharing between event owners and attendees. My role involved guiding the team through the entire design process, ensuring that the final product aligned with our strategic goals and vision.
- Directed the design process from concept to execution, emphasizing user-centric design principles and ensuring that all design outputs met high-quality standards and consistency with the product's goals.
